Rush Creek

The residence of F. M. Hiles living on Scotch Ridge, burned to the ground Saturday about 4 p.
m. with all the contents, leaving the family without a house or anything else.

The Ministerial Association and Womans Missionary Society of the U. B. Church will hold their annual meeting at Laurel Chapel, beginning about the middle of August and lasting a week.

Rev. Bagwell of the Dunkard Church will leave in about a week for Montgomery County to hold a series of meetings.

Dr. Strayer, of Bremen, was called to the home of Wm. Sheets Saturday to see Mrs. Sheets who has been quite sick for some time.

Wheat cutting is about over in this vicinity and the farmers are now turning their attention to the hay crop.

Mr. Porter Wright and family of North Berne, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wright, of this Township, Sunday.

Mr. Will Wagoner will start his threshing machine next week.
He has added a blower and some other improvements to his machine which will make things more convenient for those who work around the machine.

A crowd of glass workers from the East End Glass Factory of Lancaster, are encamped near the residence of Isaac Blosser, enjoying the fresh air of the country, also the noise of the frogs, the bites of the mosquitoes and all the other attractions for which Rush Creek is noted.

Dilts' was well attended by Mr.
William Barnhart, and wife and Clarence Edwards, Arthur Edwards, John Scholl, Grapha Dilts, Harry Loyens, Laurel Dilts, Ray
Turner, Flora Dilts, John Amer-line and several others, it being his oldest daughter's eighteenth birthday. All report a splendid time.

Mrs. Harriet Wright was the guest of Mrs. Rosa Davis last Wednesday.

The Mud Town writer was badly mistaken about Mr. Sumner Pence.

Mr. Robert Camden was seen driving toward So. Bloomingville
Sunday evening. COUNTRY KID.

Obituary.

Hannah Hutton, daughter of Nathan and Nancy Hutton was born October 10th. A. D. 1829 near Pittsburgh Pennsylvania, and moved with her parents in her youth to Hooking County, where she has since resided and departed this life July 1, 1907, aged 77 years 8 months and 21 days.

She was united in marriage to Ashford Wilson on January 31, 1867, which union continued for a period of 37 years and until the husband was claimed by the grim reaper, death, since which time she has lived by herself save from the 11th. day of June 1907, when she moved to the home of her brother, Levi Hutton, to be nursed and cared for during what proved to be her last sickness.

She became a member of the Wesley Chapel M. E. Church on what is now known as Orland Charge in early life and remained a consistent member of said church until by great adversities in life she became somewhat demented, but in her last sickness seeming to gain her former self. She declared herself to be at peace with her God and all men.

Her last sickness though of several months duration was borne with patience seldom witnessed as she was seldom heard to murmur or complain.

She leaves three brothers and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn her loss, yet with the consolation that we believe our loss to be here eternal gain.

A dear one from from us is gone.
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our midst.
Which never can be filled.

We loved her yes we loved her.
But angels loved her more.
And they have taken her to us.
To yonder shining shore.

The golden Gate was open.
A tender voice said come.
And while farewells were spoken,
She sweetly entered Home.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock A. M. on July 2, 1907, at Wesley Chapel M. E. church, conducted by Rev. Cheadle, pastor of said church, and her body was laid to rest in Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

The family of the deceased wish to extend to their neighbors their sincere thanks for the aid and assistance furnished and kindness shown during the sickness, death and burial of their relative.

Green Township Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School Convention
of Green Township, met at Smiths Chapel Sunday, July 14, 1907, with as large a congregation as is usual at such a gathering.

This great day begun by singing this most appropriate song,
"Homeward Bound" as truly the great Sunday-school organization is a band of loyal pilgrims homeward bound.
Invocation—Rev. J. W. Orr.
Address of Welcome—Rev. Orr.

Response—J. H. McSherry.
Solo—The Old Sweet Story,
J. W. Orr.

What the American S. S. is doing for the Orient.—J. F. Harden.

This paper showed what is actually being done to bring back the religious interest in the east, but he explained how a greater effort might be made and a greater work accomplished there by.

At 11:30 the baskets which had been patiently waiting all morning, now seemed to be most important on the program and the raging appetites were quelled and we were ready again to listen to several other interesting and instructive talks.

Song and Praise Service—Mrs.
Woltz.

Solo—My Mothers Bible—Ruth
K. Wright.

S. S. Lesson Review—C. W.
Cox.

The Sunday-school, the evangelical field—Rev. J. W. Orr.

He showed that out of 776 college graduates that 10 years was the average age of conversion and that this being true, the religious inclination must be developed in the Sunday-school.

The Grading of the Sunday-school—Prof. H. T. Silverthorne.

Some things the Sunday-school should emphasize—Judge F. P.
Martin.

This is outlined as follows:
1 Temperance Teaching.
2 Decision Day, Rally Day, Flag
Day, etc.
3 Scripture teaching to avoid sin.
4 That the Sunday-school is a Nursery of the Church.
5 Parental Control.

5 Children Obedience as taught in 5th Commandment.
7 Remember the Sabbath Day.
The Child's Mind—Mrs. Jeannette Harrington.

Duet—Come Unto Me, Mr. J.
W. Orr and wife.

A Frivolous Fable in Charcoal
—H. R. Harrington.

He seems to show by any living thing, a lesson to Christians to induce higher living.
